

TELEGRAPHIC.

REPORTS OF THE PRESS ASSOCIATION.

FROM PETERSBURG.

Petersburg, July 6.—There was brisk skirmishing along the lines on the centre and right last night and to-day, with heavy shelling from siege guns at intervals.

General Alexander Longstreet, chief of artillery, slightly wounded a few days since, is doing quite well.

General Bushrod Johnson was slightly wounded yesterday, but did not leave the field.